

News Release

And The Winner Is.....SYDNEY!!!

Australians all let us rejoice! Sydney has been given the honour of hosting its very first Psalmody International "The Worshipping Church" Conference. An international ministry established in 35 Nations, translated into 30 languages and accepted and conducted by many denominations has received many testimonies of life transforming results from participants who have embraced this Worship as a Lifestyle Ministry. The world class Wesley Conference Centre at 220 Pitt Street, Sydney plays host to the event from 29th February to 2nd March 2008.

Tom Inglis, founder and President of Psalmody International and Senior Pastor of Sydney Life Church, Mosman, now calling Australia home. said, "I am very excited about launching the Psalmody School of Worship into the greater body of Sydney and Australia's Churches". "The School of Worship helps us get our priorities in line with God's purposes for our lives through the understanding and development of a lifestyle of worship. Worship is interwoven with every aspect of living in the Bible including healing, warfare, prosperity, prayer evangelism and Church growth (to name a few). Only when we understand our purpose can we order our lives accordingly".

Tom Inglis has been in Ministry for over 25 Years, led thousands in worship, recorded several best selling albums, and appeared in numerous television interviews including the God Channel, TBN and radio. He has been described by Charisma Magazine as "a pioneer among Praise and Worship Leaders, forging a shift in contemporary trends to prepare the church for the changing role of worship in the 21st Century".

Reinhard Bonnke, the great evangelist (Christ for all Nations) once said of Tom Inglis, "He is a man of integrity with a heart for the Kingdom of God, I have great pleasure in recommending Psalmody as a tool for the Body of Christ". "These are momentous days and the Holy Spirit is truly taking us into new depths of worship and adoration. Tom's teaching on worship as a lifestyle has been a blessing to many people in the Church worldwide".

Also speaking at the conference is Worship Pastor Jane Curle from South Africa, whose worship ministry exemplifies the influence of God's presence to transform nations, and Pastor David McDonald, whose strong prophetic anointing is geared towards the building and restoration of the church. This is not just a conference for musicians and worship leaders, but for All Believers who want to develop a closer walk with God and enjoy a greater freedom in Life. There will be a special Psalmody for Children's session on the Saturday as part of an open night for the general public.

To register or for further information on this event go to the Psalmody International website at www.psalmody.org

Contact Karon Koza, 02 9960 4177 or 0413 456 243

Fax 02 9960 4188